Kimonos have long been one of Japan's most exciting wardrobe elements for many centuries, and continues to be today. From the highly refined estates in Tokyo to the Geisha houses of Kyoto; from Yakuza chic to Harajuku street; while taking daily strolls along city sidewalks or attending the extravagant events and religious festivals, the output of the kimono ateliers have dazzled the eyes of on lookers. This adult coloring book is a dynamic and generously illustrated portraiture of these enormously talented kimono artist and designers of ancient Japan, breathing new life into old designs and exploring their traditional craftsmanship and handiwork.
