CHRISTIAN ROMANCE: Joining Life (Romance) (Christian Short Stories Book 1) Jenn Christiansen

Kylie has never been confident about anything in her life except her commitment to her Christianity. Her former classmate Joe has always been confident about everything except his faith. When they reunite, he helps her build her self-confidence and she helps him make his own peace with God. As they begin to build a strong relationship based on faith, love and respect, a missing friend, jealous enemies and unhappy memories from the past threaten to derail their romance and shake their faith. From their initial meeting at Kylie's workplace to the class reunion that changes their lives, Kylie and Joe find that God's work for their lives encompasses so much more than they expected. The organized search their church family undertakes, the renovation of the house Joe purchases and the friendships that are forged force Kylie and Joe to realize that God's biggest plan for them requires them to commit to joining life.
