When Maggie Mitchell, is transported to the thirteenth century Highlands will Laird Logan Carr help mend her broken heart or put it in more danger than before? Generous, kind, and loving, Maggie nearly always puts the needs of others first. So when a mysterious elderly woman gives her an extraordinary pocket watch, telling her it's a conduit to the past, Maggie agrees to give the watch a try, if only to disprove the woman's delusion. But it works. Maggie finds herself in the thirteenth century Scottish Highlands, with a handsome warrior who clearly despises her. Her tender soul is caught between her own desire and the disaster she could cause for others. Will she find a way to resolve the trouble and return home within the allotted sixty days? Or will someone worthy earn her heart forever?

Dina Hirsch:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Pocket Watch (The Pocket Watch Chronicles) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
