An epic story of Africa Love or empire; ambition or greed? What drives a man to walk from the Cape to Cairo? Ewart Grogan, known to the Africans as Bwana Simba -- the man with the cold stare of the lion -- is a man of unwavering self-confidence. From his early days fighting for Cecil Rhodes in the Matabele wars, Grogan's passion uniquely equipped him to conquer a continent. He risked all to trek across darkest Africa for the woman he loves and has gone on to dominate the business world of the burgeoning new colony of British East Africa. Domination has come at a price, however. Now, the Great War points its bloody finger towards Africa. And Grogan faces his greatest ordeal and his most wrenching choice ...an incredible story, brilliantly told. Frank Coates' latest novel is a blockbuster! ABC Radio 936 'a big, powerful, full-blooded adventure'

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Roar of the Lion can make you feel more interested to read.
