The Spirit of Water: The Hidden Message for All of Us Lawrence Ellyard

The book covers every aspect of water from its worldwide use and current problems of pollution and supply, down to the microcosmic world of its hexagonal structure. It looks at its healing properties, health imbalances, its use in food and diet, and features a series of practices and meditations on how to use the principles of Hado in daily life. It includes 45 previously unpublished color ice crystal photographs.
