“To go wrong in one's own way is better than to go right in someone else's.” Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Crime and Punishment

“Crime and Punishment features an immensely engaging blend of intrigue; philosophy; political, social, moral and religious commentary, that all thread together to create a masterpiece of literature that captures the deep, raw core of the human condition when it is at its most gruesome and vulnerable.” S. Penkevich

“His themes were madness, sin, redemption through Christ, prostitution, madness, sin, the importance of knowing your place, suicide, madness, sin and the love of a good woman. And madness. And sin.” The Guardian

“Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment is a shockingly intimate tale of a murder and a murderer. Raskolnikov is a man on the brink of madness as he plots and carries out a grisly killing. Although he evades the police, Raskolnikov's dark deed weighs heavily on him.” Daily Lit

CRIME & PUNISHMENT is one of the most stunning and important novels of all time, presented in a beautiful edition specially designed for kindle. This is Dostoevsky's masterpiece which will stay with you forever.

PLUS this edition includes Dostoevsky's other masterpiece THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV

“The most magnificent book ever written.” Sigmund Freud

“The ultimate tale of three competitive brothers and a hopeless father involves love, hate, faith, nihilism, despair and patricide.” James Runcie

“The thing about Dostoevsky’s characters is that they are alive.” David Foster Wallace “Greatest novel I ever read. Characters, plot, underlying philosophical/spiritual struggle. It's simultaneously giant and it's intensely personal. It's so universal and so Russian” Hoyt

“THE BROTHERS KARAMAZOV tells the story of family patriarch Fyodor Karamazov--a repellent crooked voluptuary--and his four sons. Three were raised primarily away from his household, and have only recently returned to his town. These are Dmitri, as debauchery-loving a sensualist as his father, but more of a tortured soul striving for a higher purpose and a life of honor; Ivan, a sullen rationalist skeptic who at times manifests a contempt for others and even himself, and whose sanity is threatened by the implications of the conclusions his intellect compels him toward; and Alyosha, a goody-goody aspirant to monkhood, who seeks to be as tolerant, helpful and healing as possible toward others, but who worries how much the passionate nature he shares with the other males in his family will deflect him from his spiritual path. The fourth is the unacknowledged illegitimate son Pavel Smerdyakov, who works as a servant in the household of his father.” Philo Gabriel, Yahoo!
