What if you had the chance to lead a life of total mediocrity in which all of your wildest dreams will probably never come true? This is the life of Dan Weatherly...until a budding romance with a new coworker offers him the only extraordinary thing he's ever had. The blog he once used to complain about his life begins to chronicle the hilarious ups and downs of his new relationship. Armed with the plentiful advice (and ridicule) offered by his readers, Dan attempts to navigate a minefield of dating woes and reconcile his and his girlfriend's differing expectations for physical intimacy.
