Jenny feels caught by fate, yet something inside tells her there is more in life. Because she is sensitive, Jenny knows she has angels who guide her. Now they are forcing her to remember what she wanted to forget. When a phone call from Georgia summons her on a spiritual journey through her past, she forges the courage to face her inner conflicts. Southern patriarchy has imposed a hopelessness on Jenny that reminds her of the helpless fate of chickens. Prodded by her angels and gathering strength from Nature, Jenny begins a journey unlike any other . . . this time she is determined to escape the grasp of her mother and her feelings of hopelessness in order to redeem her own life. As a critically acclaimed Somatic Therapist, Dr. Rebecca Orleane has given us a novel full of hope and spiritual insights. Through Jenny's story, Dr. Orleane reveals secrets for reaching beyond the lifelong patterns of trauma that cripple us, teaching us how to move beyond and transcend the pain in order to reach true fulfillment. The novel reflects a combination of life problems of many people she has helped in her career. Follow Jenny through her inner battles and life altering decisions as she finds her way back home to herself and discovers true love. You will be blessed with insights that you may find useful on your own journey! What has been said about Rebecca Smith Orleane's previous books: "Articulate, provocative, and hopeful. Readers will never get bored while reading this book" Stanley Krippner, Ph.D. co-author, Extraordinary Dreams and How to Work with Them. "Rebecca Orleane is a talented writer with a feel for people and their lives" Ruth Richards, M.D, Ph.D, author of Everyday Creativity.
