HORROR MOVIE OR SCOOPY DOO CARTOON?

When the main characters are The Hero/Leader, The Damsel In Distress, The Nerd, The Stoner plus the dark-skinned Comic Relief who eats watermelon and does funny stuff, it's hard to tell the difference.

The Blood Sex & Scooby Snacks books set out to mock the films that reduce horror to the level of a Saturday morning cartoon, and are collected here for the first time. In these pages, you'll discover which slasher movie was written by Joseph Barbera's son, which Wes Craven picture shares an ending with an episode of A Pup Named Scooby Doo and which real-life CIA contact worked on Halloween II. You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll sit in stunned awe as the author explains the homoerotic subtext of A Nightmare On Elm Street 2: Freddy's Revenge. So come on get involved until the mystery is solved, but stay away from the Miller place after dark, you hear?

(This expanded edition includes a brand new chapter, 'The Scooby Awards', that allows the reader to vote for their least favourite films).
