I am just an ordinary man with faith in the America with Hope, Faith, Love, and God extraordinary God and by His power working in me and through me, extraordinary things are accomplished!

In 2004, Harold Cameron was diagnosed with two brain tumors. In an instant, his life changed drastically.

Rather than wallow in depression and self-pity, Harold mustered every ounce of hope and faith and love that was within him.

The result is a plan. Despite all the odds, Harold is going to fight brain tumors and spread his message of hope, faith, and love the only best way he knows how: By walking across America and back.

This is not the story of a hero. It is not the story of a saint or a martyr.

This is the story of Harold Cameron an ordinary man with faith in the extraordinary God.

This is why he walks.
