Cinco Esquinas (Spanish Edition) Mario Vargas Llosa

Cinco Esquinas es la nueva y esperada novela del Premio Nobel de Literatura Mario Vargas Llosa.

«Él había pensado que, después de todo, un periodista puede ser a veces útil. -Y también peligroso-, concluyó. Tuvo el presentimiento de que nada bueno saldría de esta visita.»

«La idea de esta novela comenzó con una imagen de dos señoras amigas que de pronto una noche, de una manera impensada para ambas, viven una situación erótica. Luego se fue convirtiendo en una historia policial, casi un thriller, y el thriller se fue transformando en una especie de mural de la sociedad peruana en los últimos meses o semanas de la dictadura de Fujimori y Montesinos. Me gustó la idea de que la historia se llamase Cinco Esquinas como un barrio que, de alguna manera, es emblemático de Lima, de Perú y también de la época en la que está situada la historia.

»Si hay un tema que permea, que impregna toda la historia, es el periodismo, el periodismo amarillo. La dictadura de Fujimori utilizó el periodismo amarillo, el periodismo de escándalo, como un arma política para desprestigiar y aniquilar moralmente a todos sus adversarios. Al mismo tiempo, también está la otra cara, cómo el periodismo, que puede ser algo vil y sucio, puede convertirse de pronto en un instrumento de liberación, de defensa moral y cívica de una sociedad. Esas dos caras del periodismo son uno de los temas centrales de Cinco Esquinas.»

Mario Vargas Llosa

La opinión de la crítica:

«Uno de los aciertos de la novela reside, sin duda, en lo fielmente que retrata las pretensiones éticas de esta peña que trabaja en la prensa más sensacionalista...»

Iñaki Ezkerra, El Pueblo Vasco

«Cinco Esquinas, la nueva novela de Mario Vargas Llosa, es un retrato del Perú de los años noventa, estremecido por la violencia de Sendero Luminoso, sacudido por la corrupción del gobierno de Fujimori y escandalizado por el periodismo sensacionalista.»

Letras libres

«Cinco Esquinas, la novela del Premio Nobel que reúne a modo de resumen todos los elementos presentes en la extensa producción de su autor, arropados con la magnífica prosa que acostumbra.»

Francisco García Pérez, Información De Alicante-Artes Y Letras

«Es una novela muy bien construida, con un dominio del lenguaje notable [...]»

Joan Garí, Ara
