Firehouse: Gay Firefighter Romance Brea Kendall

Anthony's life at the fire station is as ordinary as it might seem. But when a young firefighter named Ronald shows up, life at the station changes for everybody. The cocky and arrogant blond captivates everybody at the station with his grand tales of heroism and sexual conquests with all of the women he's saved. But Anthony isn't buying it. He knows that the stories Ronald is telling are more than fabricated.

Late one night after celebrating a successful call out into the field, Anthony finds himself alone with Ronald. The two of them share a drunken moment that's more surprising to Anthony than anything he ever expected from Ronald. Only then does he start to realize who Ronald really is. It's not long before Anthony learns the truth about the handsome blond firefighter. Behind all of Ronald's amazing tales and accomplishments, there's a young man with a secret that he knows makes him vulnerable. It's up to Anthony to finally get his sexy fellow fireman to come out and finally stop hiding from his true feelings and be who he really is.

This steamy short story features sexy firefighters engaging in romantic encounters. It is intended for mature readers only.
