Nemesis: The Search for Orion Saxon Andrew

From the bestselling author, Saxon Andrew comes the second book in the Nemesis Series, The Search for Orion. Earth had killed the two human genetics and the Animals are now left with a decision to make. Do they hide from the Earth Conquerors or do they take the offensive. Thousands of planets are being overrun by Earth's military forces and they know that one day, Earth will find them. It appears there's nothing capable of standing in the way of Earth conquering all the know civilizations.

But fate has a funny way of stepping in and changing everything. Knowing who the real enemy is becomes difficult to determine as the warriors from Earth find out the truth about the destruction of Avalon. The tide changes but a new more powerful enemy appears and the only thing that can stop them is a hidden invincible warship named Orion. Time is running out for all civilized planets and the first one targeted for destruction is Earth.

The action continues and this one will keep you turning the pages as the Search for Orion intensifies.

Excerpt from the Search for Orion:

"Cash, I see them."

"Have you locked one in?"

"Yes."

"On three, two, one, fire!" Two of the Invaders were moving down the street firing into the buildings. They raised their blasters and fired at local citizens who were running down the street to escape. A mother and three children were vaporized by one of their beams and the father turned and ran back toward the Invader that killed them. The Invader lowered his blaster and smiled at the futility of the enraged male.

Suddenly, the Invader had a small hole punched into his chest and he collapsed to the ground. The second Invader fell at the same moment. The male arrived and snatched the blaster from the Invader's dead hands and opened fire on the Invaders turning the corner. Six of them died before the male was burned into ash.

"Get out of here!" Cashion and Johns rushed out of the back of the store and ran back toward the platoon. Cashion lifted his communicator, "The Shooter works. Spread out and hit them from the sides."

The company of Invaders moved quickly up the street and arrived at a small park in the center of the street between tall buildings. Two broad streets ran into the park forming a crossroad. The Invader Company moved into the bushes and trees as they scanned the surrounding buildings. The Company Seeker motioned his troops to move forward. The hundred Invaders moved forward keeping their focus on the buildings in front and to the sides of their advance. They didn't noticed twenty Invaders at the rear of their formation falling to the pavement with tiny holes blown into their helmets. Fifty-six of them were down before the Seeker turned and saw the bodies of his troops lying on the ground. He yelled, "FIRE INTO ALL THE SURROUNDING BUILDINGS!!"

I have found that this book was fun to read. It kept my attention throughout the book. Good story, great characters, some mystery and lots of intriguing adventure. A group of Hero's story told in a unique way.
