Una mujer con el corazón roto encuentra una pila de cartas de amor de un héroe de la Segunda Guerra Mundial, ocultas durante décadas. ¿Le permitirán recuperar la fe en el amor?

Adrienne Carter abandona Chicago para recuperarse de un divorcio amargo y busca refugio en el sol, la arena y la belleza del sur de Florida con la intención de remodelar una casa victoriana deteriorada, situada en la playa. Al inicio de su remodelación encuentra una caja de hojalata oculta en el desván que contiene unas cartas muy emotivas escritas por un paracaidista de la Segunda Guerra Mundial a una joven mujer que vivió en la casa más de medio siglo atrás.

Las viejas cartas, cargadas de romanticismo y de un tono muy poético, trascienden el tiempo y despiertan en Adrienne una curiosidad que la lleva a buscar al autor. William «Pops» Bryant ya es un hombre mayor que vive en un pueblo cercano con su nieto, Will, muy apuesto pero demasiado sobreprotector. Mientras Adrienne empieza a desenredar los secretos de las cartas (y de la familia Bryant), descubre que no quiere renunciar al amor.
