A Father's Grief- A Collection of Poems Mahlon David Kellin

The raw poems of a father who has lost his son. David Kellin wrote a poem a day for the first month after the death of Chandler Mahlon Kellin. These are those poems. Not a poet, but a grieving father, his strong emotions are present as he challenges the notions and ideas of what a father grieving is all about. He shows us the personal side of death of a child. the poems convey anger, sadness, and confusion.
