Chasing Bandits Luke Adler

Chasing Bandits chronicles the true stories of bandits on the run who thought they could escape capture. They were wrong. With a writing style that reads like a crime novel, retired Deputy U S Marshal Luke Adler takes the reader inside the operations to catch these criminals. The information contained in this book is based on true events. The characters are real; however, some of the details have been blended, altered, or fabricated for security purposes. The names and locations have sometimes been changed to protect the privacy of the persons involved.
