Genocide and Medical Experiments of the Nazi Holocaust Ian Shepherd

Nazi Holocaust scientists were secretly brought into the US after WWII to work on U.S. government projects, writes Dr. Ian Shepherd in his new book. These Nazi scientists and engineers were brought into the United States under Operation Paperclip to work on rocket and space programs. Dr. Shepherd's exhaustive research provides proof of numerous specific instances where the Nazi scientists were given new identities to avoid the Nuremberg trials. Operation Paperclip was justified on grounds of national emergency as part of the Cold War. In addition to the alarming revelations about U.S. support of the Nazi scientists, Dr. Shepherd's new book, Genocide & Medical Experiments of the Nazi Holocaust, provides an extensive report of Nazi atrocities, from the death camps, to the Nuremberg trials, to the escape of many of the holocaust masterminds. Dr. Shepherd's book is the culmination of years of research. Using trial transcripts, interviews, and photographs, the book provides complete documentation of the medical experiments conducted by the Nazis. Dr. Shepherd discusses the impact on Jews, Jehovah's Witnesses, Homosexuals, Gypsies, Communists, and other "undesirables." With graduate work in law, medicine and physics, and a PhD. in Medical Physics, Dr. Shepherd is in a unique position to provide special insight into the Nazi medical experiments.
