MILITARY THRILLER FANS LOVE MAC WALKER!

“Mac Walker ranks right up there with Scot Harvath, Jack Reacher, and Mitch Rapp except I find Walker more likable and believable and the series allows readers to walk with him from a younger man to the old yet still tough military veteran. Great action stories. -- Semper Fidelis

This Patriot Threat collection provides readers three military thriller short stories that compliment the full action adventure Mac Walker series of novels.

- -MAC WALKER'S BULLET
- -MAC WALKER'S REGRET
- -MAC WALKER'S HUNTED

??? From MAC WALKER'S BULLET:

"Snake bit and bullet ripped, here we go."

Shooting Mac Walker is one thing. Actually killing him is another...

Former Navy SEAL and government gun for hire Mac Walker is caught in the deadly Somali desert bleeding from a gunshot wound as his intended killer seeks him out to finish the job.

??? From MAC WALKER'S REGRET

"Killing another human being isn't so hard. It's the forgetting. After a while, the faces of those you've killed tend to sneak up on you. Sometimes it's in a dream. Other times you might be sitting in a crowded coffee shop and have a nagging sense of familiarity from the person taking your order. Each death is another haunting, another memory, another bit of subconscious weight added to one's being."

For Mac Walker, that weight was never so great as when he killed that child.

This story takes place in a war torn region of Sudan where Mac must come to terms with who he has become, and who he may one day be...

??? From MAC WALKER'S HUNTED

TWO OLD WARRIORS FACE OFF, EACH AS WILD AS THE OTHER...

“That bear was just doing what any of us would - trying to survive. It was either him or me. We both understood that. He was long in the tooth, but still had plenty of bite. I hope to be half the fighter he was when my own time comes. No hard feelings between us. Just two warriors doing what comes natural, kill or be killed.” --MAC WALKER

This short story gives readers the first glimpse into Mac's involvement in the Alaskan outpost from where the epic Molan Labe adventure titled, DOMINATUS takes place.
