The Wrong Panties Sandy Heath

The Wrong Panties is neither a short story nor a novella, it's a full length (82,858 words) erotic novel by Sandy Heath featuring themes of chastity and cross-dressing and descriptions of sexual acts which those of a sensitive nature may find not to their tastes. It is, therefore, not suitable for such readers nor for anyone considered a minor by the authorities in their country of residence.

If you are looking for crude language you will not find it here. What you will hopefully find is erotic literature where care has been taken to proof read the entire work and eliminate the usual poor grammar and spelling errors which, rather sadly in my opinion, tend to characterise the genre. If you appreciate the effort which has been put into this work, then do, please, say so by leaving a review. If enough appreciative reviews are left then, you never know, I might be motivated to write a sequel.

The Wrong Panties is a work of fiction but almost all of the scenarios have been tested for practicality, just for the sake of realism and authenticity of course. Most have been tested more than once, many have been tested several times and some have been exhaustively tested over and over again – only for the sake of research you understand. (That's my story and I'm sticking to it!) However, if you choose to indulge in any of the concepts, events or scenarios depicted within this novel, you do so entirely at your own risk and that of your reputation as a sane human being.

As I said, it is a work of fiction but many of you will wish it wasn't and I'll wager some of you wish it had happened, could happen or would happen to you. Maybe you will even live in hope that it will happen to you. Well you could always risk leaving it around for your wife or girlfriend to read if you dare!

Should you choose to share it with the significant female in your life, I feel it only right to warn you that there may be consequences. Two immediately spring to mind:-

One:- she may decide that you're an incorrigible pervert and leave you for someone far more grey and boring.

Two:- she may decide that you're an incorrigible pervert and take advantage of your fetishes and weaknesses to ensure that she gets all the sex she wants exactly the way she wants it by keeping you, too, teased and tormented in sensual frilliness and desperate for release and relief while you struggle and strain, inescapably locked in "The Wrong Panties".

So:-

Be careful what you wish for. - You just might get it!
