Cassandra's Effect: A Novel of Self Discovery Derek Smith, Rev. Kami Finch

Truly crazy people don't think to question their sanity. But then again, truly sane people aren't in insane asylums. Cassandra has an interesting gift. Somniloquy, or sleep talking. Only, she sleep talks conversations that she's going to have in the future. But she wasn't committed for that. Apparently, she also thinks she talks to God...or a god...or maybe it's just Zoltar the Universal Burger Flipper. Nobody's really sure. All they do know though, is that the voice in her head says the world's about to end and her somniloquy from the future is stopped. By the end of this book, the world will be destroyed. Or not. It's not really up to the author. The fate of the entire planet falls squarely on Cassandra Matthews, a twenty-four year old foul mouthed, sarcastic, mental patient. We couldn't be in better hands.
