If You Touch My Mind T. A. Seitz

Beau Joshua abandoned his dreams to help his best friend start a rock band. Success led to drugs, manipulative women, and depression. The struggle to remain in control of his life has been undermined by a greedy manager and an aggressive girlfriend. Houston psychologist, Annabelle Henderson, uses her ability to enter minds in order to help recovering addicts work through the demons and fears which interfere with healthy relationships. While she can address the entities damaging a client's soul, there are monsters she refuses to face: her own. The attraction is evident when friends introduce the pair. Beau refuses Anna's professional help but begins a journey to understand his past. As he makes progress, he realizes Anna is trapped in a personal hell of devastating emotional scars. A life-threatening injury allows Beau to confront their demons, including the one who betrayed Anna, in order to help her heal: body and soul.
