Introduction

I

In this socio-emotional program, axioms are word for word quotes from Glasser's Choice Theory, and the habits come directly from Glasser's "Seven Caring Habits" and "Seven Deadly Habits."

II

Resources for discussions:

1. Students' opinions and experiences; and
2. Teacher's knowledge of Glasser's psychological theories.

III

This program should help students psychologically explore themselves and their relationships with others.

For each of 24 weeks, students construct a single class web that they daily add information to, based on the discussion topic (axiom or habit) of the week.
