Engaged to be married since they were children, Miss Dianna Foxcroft and Lord Miles Radnor, Earl of Winfield, were perfect for one another. Until the day he left her standing at the altar and disappeared for parts unknown, breaking their engagement... and Dianna's heart.

Four years have passed since that fateful day, and Miles has at long last come home to England. His sudden return has filled Dianna's head with questions, and her heart with doubt. She wants to trust the man Miles has become... but how can she forgive the boy who betrayed her?

He may have traveled the world, but Miles has never forgotten the blue-eyed beauty he left behind. Determined to win back the heart of the only woman he has ever truly loved, he seeks Dianna out only to discover she despises the very sight of him. Or so she says...
