What Do You Fear? Book 1 E. L. Jefferson

These are stories of human horror, those horrific acts of cruelty we as humans inflict on each other in real life - senseless, cruel murder; rape and torture; mutilation of others; and child molestation, to name a few. These horrible acts we commit daily. We betray those closest to us with reckless abandon and could care less about the consequences of our actions.

I tell stories that not only show what human horror is; I show the reader the price that must be exacted for such atrocities and their consequences. It is cruel, in some cases barbaric, but you will have to decide if the punishments are just.
