Why don't you like me, Blair? Emily thinks. What did I do to make you hate me already?

Emily is finally coming home after four years at college. A lot has changed since she left, including her mother getting re-married and Emily finally getting a stepbrother!

But Blair isn't all he seems to be, and even though Emily finds herself attracted to him, she knows that there's something lurking just below the surface ... something that doesn't want to get out.

It's not until one night, when Blair finally breaks the ice and tries to comfort a stressed-out Emily, that she discovers what he's really like — both inside and out. Will their relationship last? Or will Emily have to be forced to realize that she and Blair may never be?
