Beth met the love of her life in college. She moved to Ireland to be with him, had two wonderful children, and was lucky enough to fall into a fulfilling career. Then everything changed.

When her other half, Jack, dies unexpectedly, Ireland no longer feels like home. But moving back to small-town Michigan has its own complications. As Beth settles in, her daughter pulls away. And when life seems to hold new possibilities for her, she has to choose between making herself happy or her daughter. It's the friendships she makes along the way that keep her going.

Rich in warmth and humor 'After Home' is a story of love, loss, and finding your way home again.
