BLACKJACK: BURIED SECRETS Blackjack, aka Arron Day, is a black soldier of fortune in the tumultuous 1930s. He travels the globe battling powerful enemies, the ghosts of his past, and the bigotry of his time. Get ready for two action filled adventures. In the supernatural thriller, NIGHT OF FEAR, Blackjack makes a 10, 000 foot drop into the northern regions of Scotland to keep a hated laird and his family from being slaughtered by werewolves. Arron is too late to save two of them, their bodies torn to shreds, but the terrifying creatures are not done. They've come to fulfill a curse that promises no member of the clan will be left alive. Soon Arron must face the hatred of the town and the family he's come to protect. And as he falls deeper into the legend and possible infection by the demons themselves, Arron wonders can even a dark angel hold his ground against the hounds of hell? In the suspense filled tale, "A View Through Emerald Eyes," foreign correspondent, Timothy O'Connor is desperately in need of Blackjack's help. His newshawk snooping has angered a vicious international gang. Now the even the streets of London aren't safe and cornered in a dark alley, Tim maybe drawing his last breath, and his only chance to survive doesn't even know he's there. It is the 1930s ... a good time for a dark hunter.
