Experiences have shown that many events in life shape human lives. The effects of those events on human lives also vary based on the individuals, groups, and environments one interacts with. In essence, no one can swim through the ocean of life solitarily without covert or overt assistance from other variables either to sink or float. It also makes meaning to say that success or failure in one's life depends on these factors. Therein lays the mystery of life as synonymous to a house with three exits each exit having different scenarios. In life, success can be in the form of seizing the opportunity by being at the right place, at the right time, and with the right people. This book discussed my early years, work experiences after high school, tertiary education, and foreign travels.
