Scarlet Darkness Cassandra Dayne

In the shadow of darkness there remains a curse, one aimed at destroying those considered immortal.

Scarlet Dumane refuses to believe in the ways of voodoo and magic or in creatures of the night. When she's called to the Bayou to settle her grandmother's estate, she's faced with the possibility that were-tigers exist. A series of brutal murders indicate a monster lurks in the forest, preying on innocent men and women. Terror has ripped the town apart. In the shadow of darkness, she receives threatening calls from the townsfolk. When a mysterious stranger and former handyman of her grandmother's appears at her door, she's curious to find out more. Larken Myers is sexy, rough-hewn and instantly their combined chemistry signifies something more between them than just attraction. Finding an ancient book telling a tall fairytale of were-tigers who will rule the world, a required mating and a mysterious red moon, Scarlet scoffs at the information. Until the threats become real. An ancient curse envelops the town and according to legend, few humans will survive.

Survival. Vindication. Evil. Who will survive?
