Flashlight Dinosaurs, Terror in Time (Flashlight Books) Mark Shulman

When the time machine lands, the leader of a band of magazine photographers jumps out and shouts: "I smell dinosaurs out here!" Soon, they're all taking pictures of the three-horned triceratops, the gigantic allosaur, and many more monsters. With just a simple flashlight, kids can project shadows of these monsters on a wall. Flashlight Books are funny and a little scary, but their most unusual features are the illustrations, with die-cut shapes that glow in the dark. Better yet, when kids turn out the lights, then hold one of the book's die-cut paper monsters so that it catches a flashlight beam, a monster silhouette is projected on the wall behind the picture. Kids can make their own shadow monster movies after they've read each book's humorously rhymed story.
