The Magician Michael Olive

They call themselves the Death Whisperers, a trio of ex-commandos who prowl the streets eliminating human vermin who don't deserve to walk this earth. Cailan Bane, Dan Gabriel, and Julian Martens are first-call consultants when the Chicago police and FBI need a team not bound by the law. But this assignment is beyond anything they've seen since their days in combat. The Albanian mafia, run by an invisible assassin known only as the Magician, has invaded Chicago establishing brothels filled with trafficked teenage girls and supplying guns and drugs to the local gangs escalating violence to epic levels. When the Death Whisperers destroy the Albanian sex trafficking business, the Magician responds with a murderous rampage and the team realizes that to take down the organization, they must cut off the snake's head. But identifying the invisible killer is like a macabre phantasmagoria of shifting images in a fever dream. The Death Whisperers become entangled in a deadly game of illusion where nothing is as it seems and with the Magician's shadow looming they must resort to extreme measures to flush the assassin before the city turns into a war zone.
