CHRISTMAS IN HAWAII!

This short story is based on Homeland Security contract assets from Kay Hadashi's Honolulu Thriller Series, Keiko and Megumi. In this lighthearted mystery, they find more trouble than they bargain for when they steal the office Christmas tree. Why? Because they can, and because the ancient plastic tree in the lunchroom needs to be retired.

Before they know it, their plans change on Christmas Eve when the office safe is raided and they are charged with the job of finding out who gave themselves a holiday bonus. Between cooking a turkey for a homeless shelter, troublesome last minute gift shopping, and tracking down the missing money, Keiko and Megumi have never had a busier Christmas!

Available only during the holiday season, all proceeds from the sales of this short story will be donated to a women and children's center in Honolulu.
