Garth Burnett is a gunslinger with no future. He signed on to help a local sheriff keep the peace in a small town never realizing that there was nothing but peace to keep. Bored out of his mind and longing for the wilder side of life he'd left behind he plans to pick up and leave Harmony...one of these days.

Except this kid with a sob story about his missing brother lands at his feet. And the sheriff has gone missing. And things just aren't as dull as they once were, with Lane Murray around to fight with.

Distracted and angry Garth misses what's right in front of his eyes. The kid, isn't just missish, he's a Miss. One determined to get her man. If it kills them both.

From the wilds of Texas to a New Orleans mansion, Alayne takes Garth on a wild ride that is never quite what it seems.
