He who finds a wife finds a good thing and that's exactly what Montez had done when he found the love of his life, Victory Daniels. At an early age Victory, also known as Vic, proved herself to be his backbone, his strength, the one to uplift him at a time of adversity, and one who would forever have his back. Trust was never an issue because no woman ever came before her but temptation swivels its way into their relationship, causing unforeseen problems that Vic won't put up with. She's down for her man in every aspect but she demands his respect.

Montez made a quick come-up by having a go-getter mentality and putting in work. The way he silently moved and handles his business places him in a position to make more money than he had ever seen. Things seemed to be handed to with ease, but everything comes with a price. That price goes by the name of Olivia and she wants to stick her claws in him, whether he likes it or not.

Ace loves Cherry with all his heart and for once in his life, he's finally trying to do right but his past mistake keeps biting him in the butt, causing problems in his relationship. He does all he can to keep the chaos away but the more he tries; the harder it gets.

Cherry is at her wit's end with Ace and his ways. If it isn't one thing, it's another, and she's getting tired. She's given her all in their relationship but she feels she isn't getting all of him in return. Situations arise that really test their love and she doesn't know whether she is going to ride it out or stick by her man.

Their love is tested, trust broken, and hope is almost diminished, but it will take more than a few haters and mishaps to destroy a bond that took years to build. To love a man is a task in itself, but there is no greater test than being The Wife of a Texas Hustler.
